COMPANY "C" WINS FREEMAN PRIZE CUPS IN COMPETITIVE DRILL

Layman Wins Honors in Individual Cadet for Second time

McVEY PRESENTS CUP
Six Military Men pledged "Boots and Saddles"

Company C of the University battalion of Cadets under the leadership of Captain Harold Enlow and Sponsor Mary Colvin, won the silver loving cup given by Colonel George D. Freeman, in the competitive drill ceremony on Stoll Field Tuesday afternoon, May 16. Harry Layman a junior in the College of Engineering was the winner for the second time in succession of the $5 prize awarded the best individual drilled cadet.

Each company tested separately by the judges for the afternoon and the number of points averaged, company C having the largest number. Attendance, appearance and alertness with the accuracy of complying to commands were the prerequisites considered in winning. Between competition of the three companies the individual drill was held and a manual of arms by the entire battalion was set to music furnished by the University Band.

At the end of the program Company C was called forward and President McVey presented the cup with a short speech of congratulation to the Captain of the company.

A very attractive feature of the afternoon was the pledging of six men to Boots and Saddles honorary military fraternity. The six men were called out of ranks and the five high-

What Blue Ridge Means

It means memories and friends.

It means boys and girls and Christian idealism and Southern cordiality.

It means a climb by the mountains and a descent into the valley—vision and service.

It means earth's prose transmuted into heaven's poetry.

It means folks who are what they ought to be, or nearly so.

It means the high spot so far in spiritual experience.

It means questions answered, problems solved, lives changed and dedicated.

It means self-discovery and self-realization.

It means being liked for that you would like to be.

It means a new personal label: "I am a Blue Ridge." There are tens of thousands of Blue Ridges. They belt the globe. To meet Blue Ridge again is to talk Blue Ridge.

It means hearing a Voice calling you.

It means what you would like to say but cannot. What did his vision of Jehovah mean to Isaiah? What did the Transfiguration of his Master mean to Peter? What did the open heaven mean to John?

And it will mean, or may mean, if you will, something equally wonderful and beautiful to YOU.—Herman H. Horne, University of New York.

$5 REWARD $5

John Burks, director of the Stroller Club has offered a reward of $5 for the finding and return of the original Manuscript of "The Thirteenth Chair." This is a valuable manuscript and any information concerning it would be greatly appreciated.

SOUTHERN COLLEGES TO BE WELL REPRESENTED AT BLUE RIDGE MEET

70 DELEGATIONS THERE

Students Expected From Every School

Blue Ridge is located in one of the most beautiful parts of the Blue Ridge mountains of North Carolina, several miles from the nearest town. The glory of the mountains, with their wonderful sunsets, the wildness of the forests and the beauty of the streams makes this an ideal spot for the conference of Southern Students.

Blue Ridge, where the South reigns supreme, is the name on every tongue of those who know what it is, and particularly of those who have been to see. There'll be delegates from "Alabama, Tenn-ess-ee and Car-ol-ine," as we recall that old song, "Are you from Dixie," and Kentucky will be well represented too.

The killing of a charging elephant at fifteen paces in Indo China is one of the recent experiences of A. M. Kirby, '07, branch manager of the Standard Oil Company in that field. Lions, tigers and other big game have contributed to the notches on Mr. Kirby's rifle, according to a letter received by Professor Zembrod.

Augustus M. Kirby, of Butler Ky., received his A. B. degree at the University of Kentucky in 1907, and immediately afterwards went to the Philippine Island for the U. S. Agriculture Department. While there he held the following positions: agriculture advisor, superintendent of schools, provincial treasurer, and representative of the Standard Oil Company. In 1915 he was sent to Amoy, China, to look after the Standard Oil interests there, and the next year to Hongkong, China.

When the United States declared war he returned to the University and joined the Radio service here. From Lexington he was sent to camp Mead Md., and later to New Jersey. While in the army he was commissioned second lieutenant in the Signal Corps.

Immediately after his discharge Mr. Kirby received a telegram from the Standard Oil Company, offering him his former position. He accepted and went to French province in Indo China, where he is branch manager.

Mr. Kirby entered the University in 1903, and made a very good record during his entire four years course. He was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and president of the senior class. He said that the French he took in the University helped him a great deal in his work.

Professor Zembrod has received several interesting kodak pictures of elephants and tigers that Mr. Kirby had killed on recent hunts and an account of the difficulties he encountered.

He expects to return to his home in September and will bring his wife with him.

Clubs Will Send Delegates

Delegates from alumni clubs will be entitled to cast one vote for each three active members of their respective clubs in the business meeting of the Association. This is provided in the Constitution as amended in 1914.

—X—X—

Re-Union Plan Announced

A full attendance of the 383 members of classes holding their regular five year re-union June 13 and a fair representation of the contemporary classes joining for the first time under the Dix plan, is the aim of the Commencement Committee. Several innovations in entertainment are proposed by the General Committee to keep the visitors busy from 8 a. m. until midnight on Alumni Day.

An assembly by colleges, alumni, faculty and members of the graduating class, from 8 until 10 a. m. will be held as last year.

The annual business meeting of the Association will be held in Chapel beginning at 10:30 p. m. Class luncheons will be held on the campus at noon, the re-union classes—77, 82, 87, 92, 97, 02, 07, 12 and 17—heading the group of alumni who were in the University during their senior year. Under this new plan the classes of 78, 80, 83, 84, 85, 88, 89, 90, 93, 94, 95, 98, 99, 00, 03, 04, 05, 08, 09, 10, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19 and 20, also would come back.

Prizes will be offered for the alumni traveling the greatest distance to the Reunion, to the representative of the oldest class and to the class having the largest registered attendance.

EDITORS WILL COMPETE

Head of Department of Journalism Offers Prize through Press Association

A competitive newspaper display will be a feature of the Kentucky Press Association's meeting at Crab Orchard Springs June 29, 30 and July 1. This competition is made possible by a cash prize offered by Professor Enoch Graham, Head of the Department of Journalism of the University of Kentucky. The suggestion was made by Professor Graham to indicate the interest of the Department of Journalism in building better newspapers in Kentucky.

Two members of the class of '22 have joined the ranks of editors and owners of Kentucky newspapers, Joe T. Lovett, the Henton Tribune-Democrat, and Keen Johnson, the Anderson News. Presley T. Atkins ex-'06 became editor and owner of the Pineville Sun more than a year ago. William C. Shinnick '17 is the well known publisher of the Shelby Record. Other alumni are executives of the Courier-Journal, and Owensboro Inquirer, Lexington Herald and other leading newspapers, in addition to a host of reporters, copy readers and advertising solicitors.

—X—X—

BALLOTS ARE MAILED

Alumni are Voting for Officers and Amendment to Constitution

Ballots have been sent out to all active members of the Alumni Association to vote for officers of the Association and on an amendment to the Constitution proposed at the last meeting of the Association.

This amendment would provide that former students recently admitted to full membership in the Association would not be allowed to hold major offices in the Association. The Executive committee at its regular monthly meeting May 8 voted unanimously in opposition to this amendment and directed that its recommendation be placed on the ballot sent to the alumni.

Delegates to the convention of the Association of Alumni Secretaries held at Champaign, Ill., May 4, 5 and 6, were informed that state universities and endowed colleges generally are making a drive for non-graduates as members of their association because of the greatly increased membership possible. There are 2,176 living graduates of the University of Kentucky and more than 14,000 non-graduates.

The engagement of Miss Kathleen Oglesby '21, to Robert E. Phillips of Princeton, Ky., was announced last Saturday. ## JOURNALISTS WILL CELEBRATE

Alpha Delta Sigma Plans Innovation For Commencement Week

Alpha Delta Sigma, men's journalistic fraternity, is arranging a dinner that will be a feature of Commencement Week. Many alumni who hold prominent positions in the journalistic profession will return for the jollification.

Between Us

"I am sending you a check for $5, contributed by the Candle Club, a small girls' club of which I am the corresponding secretary. We only wish we could give more but this little is gladly given. I am always glad to do my part for the Association. I am also sending my personal check for $5 for the Memorial Building fund. Best wishes for success in the drive."—Lena Clem '18, Bedford, Ky.

—X—X—

"If you will write me what the dues are, will send check for our entire membership with list paid up, giving you at once a representative membership for the Clark County Club."—Davis D. Crabb ex-President.

—X—X—

"Here in the heart of the hills of old Kentucky I am practicing my profession and the prospects look fine. This is the growing part of the state, and is yet in its infancy—an ideal place for a young man to locate.

"If I can be of any assistance to you in this part of the state just say the word."—Emery L. Frazier ex-'22, Whitesburg, Ky.

—X—X—

Shelby County, Tenn., is putting on a big Dairy campaign, many prominent business men of Memphis, as well as several of the larger implement firms, bankers and the extension forces, Farm Bureau and the railroads cooperating.

Two old Kentucky men have representation for the Railroads; Casey Smith—now Agricultural Agent with the Illinois Central; and M. L. McCracken, '16 Agricultural Agent with the Louisville & Nashville, located at Memphis and Paris, Tenn. respectively. Both are Alpha Zeta men from Scovell Chapter.

—X—X—

Wilbur Wesley Stevenson graduated in the class of 1911, receiving a B. M. E.; and his M. E. degree in 1915. He entered the employ of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company as mechanical engineer in their East Pittsburgh plant. In 1915 he was made manager of Works Department and remained there until 1917 when he became a member of the Efficiency Department of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company at Pittsburgh. Since 1920 Mr. Stevenson has been Efficiency Engineer of the Duquesne Light Company, Chamber of Commerce Building, Pittsburgh. His residence address is 1125 Lancaster Avenue, Swissvale Station, Pittsburgh.

"Since changing my address last fall I have about lost track of the happenings at 'State.' Will you please see that my address is corrected so that I will receive the publications? I don't know just how I stand in regard to dues to the Association but enclose a check for 5 to make sure that I stay on the list."—H. K. (Hub.) Cayle '14.

Mr. Galde, immediately after receiving his B. S. Agr., became county agent of Simpson County, Kentucky. In 1915 he joined the staff of the Agricultural Experiment Station of Mississippi and went from there in 1918 to the Holland-Delta Company Stock Farms at Lake Providence, Louisiana. In 1920 he became general manager of a plantation belonging to this company, in Chicot County, Red Leaf, Arkansas. Mr. Gayle is now one of the proprietors, Church & Gayle, of the "Big Creek Plantation," Turrell, Ark.

—X—X—

Have just sent Mr. Wiley, Chairman Alumni Committee of Memorial Building fund, my promissory note. I presume the Kernel will keep us posted as to the success of this movement."—R. H. Guerrant '08, Clifton Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Guerrant is sales engineer with the Industrial Appliance Company, 332 South La Salle Street, Chicago. He was with the American Steel Foundries plant at Chicago from 1914 until he went into service in 1917—with Ordnance Department at Rock Island, Ill. He was also a member of the National Safety Council. He has held his present position since 1920.

—X—X—

B. F. Creech, ex-'17, is Animal Husbandry Specialist for the West Virginia Experiment Station, Morgantown. During the last four years he has been very successful in driving scrub animals from the State and has demonstrated his ability to organize the live stock farmers.

—X—X—

A. B. Beaumont '08 writes—"According to this scheme of re-unions, my class, '08, would have its re-union next year and the others, except the youngest two classes, would be isolated entirely from the classes which were in college at the same time. I wonder if the Alumni Association has ever considered a plan of re-unions such as recently adopted at Cornell, whereby contemporaneous classes are brought back at the same time. I think the plan has its merits. Certainly, as a member of '08, I should like to renew acquaintance and friendships among classes of '09, '10 and '11."

For several years Professor Beaumont was on the staff of Cornell University in the Department of Soil Technology. Since 1917 he has been connected with the Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst.

—X—X—

"Enclosed you will find information card and my check for two dollars. I shall be glad to receive the Kernel at my business address.

"I am member of the Kentucky Club at Louisville and always ready to boost U. K. We have one of the best Universities in the country and all we need is the support and help of all alumni. One of my great desires is to see the Wildcats football champions of the South."—R. C. Mayhall ex-'10, Engineering Department, Louisville Railway Company, Louisville, Ky.

KENTUCKY NINE EASY VICTORS OVER CENTRE

Game Belonged to Wildcats From Beginning of Second Inning

After having been forced to bow in defeat in all of the games on the Southern trip, the Wildcat nine easily defeated Centre last Saturday afternoon. The final count was 10 to 1. "Slug" Fleahman pitched a masterful game and was never in danger with the exception of the first inning. "Dutch" Burnham continued his mighty slugging, getting four safeties out of five trips to the platter, one of which was a powerful line drive to left center good for the circuit.

The Colonels opened the festivities by scoring in the first frame on two walks, a sacrifice and an error. Not abashed by this gift, the Wildcats promptly got busy and before the side had been retired four runs had crossed the plate. Again in the second the Blue and White representatives scored two runs on a home run by "Dutch" and two singles by Brown and Pribble. Not satisfied the Cats scored again in the fourth, fifth and seventh bringing the total up to ten markers. Meanwhile their opponents had been unable to tally although there were men on base in every inning.

Fleahman pitched an excellent game, and except for temporary wildness in the initial frame, was never in danger. On the other hand the Cats pounded the offerings of Moran and Embry for thirteen safeties. Burnham was the hitting star of the contest, closely followed by Pribble and Brown.

Yesterday and today the Cats played the University of Tennessee nine on Stoll Field. At the time of going to press no results could be obtained.

FRESHMEN STILL LEAD IN INTERCLASS LEAGUE

Juniors Loose to First Year Men in Last Few Innings

The Freshmen tightened their hold on first place in the class league by defeating the Juniors Monday afternoon. The first year men came from behind in the last inning and scored six runs. Walden pitching his first game for the Sophs was rather wild all during the game, losing complete control in the last frame. His wildness coupled with erratic fielding contributed to the victory of the Freshmen. Carter relieved Lafferty in the fifth and as the team was behind when he entered the box receives credit for the victory.

AGRICULTURE NEWS

Professor E. S. Good, W. S. Anderson and R. C. Miller of the Animal Husbandry Department of the Experiment Station attended a field meeting at Bowling Green last week. About three hundred farmers of the state attended this gathering where the breeding of the farm flock was the subject for most of the discussion.

Senator J. M. Camden recently presented the Experiment Station with a New Hampshire lamb. Senator Camden's flock is reputed to be one of the best in the country and this lamb was the pick of this year's flock.

The Hoof and Horn Club of the University will stage a stock judging contest this week on the Experiment Station Farm and also on the farm of E. H. Taylor, Jr. This contest will be of beef cattle and the winner will be given a silver cup, a present from Mr. E. G. Patterson. Other prizes given will be: A year's subscription to the Breeder's Gazette to the freshman winning the highest number of points; and subscriptions to other breeder's papers.

CAMPUS CHATTER

More couples are desired to enter the mixed couple tennis tournament to be held here some time next week, the exact date not having been definitely settled as yet. Prof. H. H. Downing announced today. There are at present only five couples entered, whereas there should be at least 12 couples entered in the tournament. All those desiring to enter the tournament should enter their names with Professor Downing as soon as possible.

The Courier-Journal of Sunday May 14 carried pictures of Dorothy Potter who was recently elected as president of the Woman's Athletic Association of the University. Miss Potter is a junior and has played Varsity basketball through her college course.

Dead C. R. Melcher is to deliver the commencement address at the New Castle High School Friday evening, May 19.

BLUE RIDGE SPIRIT.

This is the thing that keeps the work of Blue Ridge alive. Since the idea was conceived of starting a place where Christian organizations could gather to talk over problems and plans for the future, Blue Ridge has held the spirit of these men who planned for it.

Blue Ridge spirit would not be what it is were it not for the surroundings, and before we attempt to talk of the spirit, we must talk of the surroundings that harmonize with it. Set back up on the side of a mountain, and surrounded by trees on every side of it is Lee Hall, the main building, built of wood, painted white with a portico of columns in the old Southern style.

Back of Lee Hall rises the sheer side of the mountain, which descends on each side of it, forming a sort of natural amphitheatre. As you stand on the porch of Lee Hall, the Craggy mountains are visible straight ahead, with their peaks covered with clouds a large part of the time. As far as the eye can see round about there is nothing but the mountain, and the first impression that one receives is that of quiet and dignity inspired by the mountains.

There is nothing there to disturb the mind. After leaving the city it is wonderful just to feel at rest without noise or disturbances of any kind. This quiet, this impressive dignity, forms the setting for the Blue Ridge Spirit.

The next thing to influence one's mind is the people there. During the student conference there are between 450 and 500 students there. Being fresh from colleges, one would expect to find the college atmosphere among them, but not so. These men have come for a purpose and they are from and represent the Christian element in the college.

And so these two things, the people and the surroundings go to make up the Blue Ridge Spirit. The surroundings furnishing the dignity and the quiet and the people the spirit of brotherhood and Christian peace. After one day in this atmosphere, one hates to leave. His mind is at rest with the world and God, and the spirit of the place carries his thought to higher things. This is what makes Blue Ridge successful and impressive, this impalpable, indefinable blue Ridge Spirit.

The fact that the Senate has decided to put a tariff on ink is taken by the pupils in the English Department as a direct assault on the barbarous custom of imposing so many themes a week.

After sending us such visitors as Cardinal Mercier, Marshal Foch, H. G. Wells and Earl Balfour, Europe was inclined to be a little cocky. We have evened things all right now. We are sending them Jack Dempsey, Emma Goldman, Douglas Fairbanks and Mennie Leonard.

We are glad to note that the Gerson Conference did not solve all the world problems. There is still material left to occupy the minds of the mass of 1922.

And now approacheth that time when the cold and merciless father will drive his newly graduated son forth into the world to work or starve. Probably most of us will do a little of both.

SCHOLARSHIP PRIZE
PRESENTED BY PRES.

Sam Ridgeway, New Council
Head Introduced in Chapel

President McVey conducted the devotional exercises in chapel Tuesday morning and awarded the cup, given by the Y. M. C. A. to the fraternity with the highest scholarship. Sam Ridgeway, recently elected president of the Men's Student Council was introduced by the retiring President John Crenshaw.

Doctor McVey presented the cup to William Kirtley for Tau Delta Alpha fraternity. He congratulated the group and commended any movement for the encouragement of scholarship. He emphasized the fact that scholarship is the real purpose of college. The contest was between 14 Greek groups and the Tau Delta Alpha led with an average of 1.93. The Sigma Nu fraternity came second with an average of 1.71 and will receive a banner, which is given by the University Book Store.

Crenshaw the retiring president of Men's Student Government Council said a few words regarding the election and about the year's work done by the Council. He introduced Sam Ridgeway, who expressed his appreciation of the results of the election and the new office that is entrusted to him. Dr. McVey added his commendation of the Men's Student Government Council and prophesied a great deal for it in the future.

Miss Anna Chandler Goff talked for a few minutes about the Scotti Opera Company which will appear in two performances at Woodland Auditorium Friday.

Arbor Day Exercises Friday
Fourth and Fifth Hours

The annual arbor day exercises will be held on the campus Friday morning at the fourth and fifth hours. Robert Lavin president of senior class will preside over the ceremonies.

The members of the Senior class will throw in a spade of dirt as they pass by the tree to be planted. Then the Senior orator, Raymond Johnson will present the spade to the Junior orator Harry Brallsford. Eve Congleton will then disclose the fate of the various members of the class.

After this the pledging of new members to Lamp and Cross, Honorary Senior Men's fraternity and to Mortar Board, Honorary Senior girl's fraternity will be held in front of the Main Building.

The Beginning of Summer
Conferences

"Many years ago, in the days when the Kingdom of Friendly Citizens was but a name written upon the sands of Calilee, a group of friends, leaving their moored boats and their little shops, held some conferences together. They were all busy men, and sometimes they could find no time save at the end of the day's work for meeting this Master Friend of theirs. Almost always it was under the sky that they met Him. The stories that He told were all of growing things—lilies and vineyards and little children. And all along country lanes, up steep mountain paths, by the side of still waters, He led them, talking about another growing thing—the dream of all His life. For He dreamed a dream of a new order in which all the people of the world would share in a friendly citizenship. And these walks and talks of the long ago were the very learning of summer conferences."

Natural Bridge Picnic to be Given Tomorrow

There will be an excursion to Natural Bridge Saturday May 20, conducted by the Department of Botany. The fare will be $1.50 round trip provided 200 students go. The Department of Botany is very anxious that this number will be secured. The train will leave Lexington at 2:30 a. m. and will leave Natural Bridge on the return trip at 5 p. m. Students must take their lunch with them. Tickets should be bought at once from botany students. This rate to students is very reasonable and everybody who has not been to the bridge should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity.

MERCER NINE DEFEATS CATS BY SMALL MARGIN

Final Contest of Southern Trip Lost by 6-5 Count

MACON, Ga., May 11.—The University of Kentucky baseball team was again nosed out here this afternoon in the final game of its southern trip, when it lost to the Mercer University nine by the score of 6 to 5. The Wildcats outlit the locals by a narrow margin and had a big edge in the field, but concentrated hits off Fleahman in the third inning gave the locals a lead which the visitors were unable to overhaul, although they staged a three-run rally in the eighth.

Bill King, shortstop of the Wildcat team, hit a home run. Score:

U. K. DEFEATS NORTH CAROLINA IN DEBATE

Johnson and Neal Win Kentucky's Fifth Victory of Season

The debate between the University of Kentucky and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C., last Saturday night resulted in a two to one decision in favor of the University of Kentucky. R. T. Johnson and S. B. Neale represented the University. They argued the affirmative side of the Immigration question.

This is a signal victory for U. K., for the University of North Carolina is famous throughout the South for oratory and debating. This is the fifth victory for Kentucky this season.

Unusual interest in debating has been aroused this year, and great stimulus has been offered through the high school debating league of the state, of which Professor Mikesell is director.

LITTLE THEATRE NOTES

"The Mouthpiece of God," a play written by Prof. Harvey Hicks of the English department, was presented at the Little Theatre yesterday afternoon by the Dramatic Production class. The plot was interesting, the scenic effects attractive and the acting effective. The cast was composed of Olivia Smith, Josephine Flithan, K. H. Tuggle, Leslie Morton, and Henry Taylor, student director.

"The Casting of a Pearl," written by Prof. Carol M. Sax, will be presented at the last matinee tea of the season next Thursday afternoon. It is a play in which Oriental and Western points of view are contrasted through a symbolism incident. The scene of the play is a street in a modern city. There will be eleven character parts.

Preparatory School Students—Jesus and His Cause, Dale Dewitt; St. Paul the Giant, Brother Mark; Men of An Ancient Day, Bland Roberts.

College Students—These classes will be led as last year by students. Mr. R. L. Ewing of New York will lead the Normal Training class, assisted by Prof. W. M. Brown of Washington and Lee. Dr. O. E. Brown will give a special course for Professors and Ministers.

Human Study Hour

We have an exceptionally fine list of teachers for these courses, including men just back from India, specialists on the racial and industrial problems.

Institute Hour

During this hour the students will meet according to their probable life works, such as the ministerial students, medical students, engineering Christian faith.

Speakers

Fletcher Brockman, associate with Dr. Mott, product of Georgia. He will just be back from the Christian Student gathering in China.

Sherwood Eddy, student secretary for all of Asia, association with Dr. Mott, returns this summer to the Orient for the next two years, one of our great platform men, has kept the Morning Watch since he was twelve years old. He is a man on fire with a passion for winning men to Christian living.

W. D. Weatherford, for twenty years leader of the student work in the South, now President of the Southern Y. M. C. A. Training College and one of the best known speakers before Southern students.

Many other speakers equally well known will be at Blue Ridge ready to give some vital message.

Statements by Students

"My two summer's camp at Blue Ridge have meant more to me than anything else in my four years of college. No Christian student of the South should leave college without attending one of these summer camps."

C. V. Watson, University of Kentucky.

"The experience I had in the Blue Ridge Summer Conference cannot be compared with any other that I have ever had. The spiritual atmosphere, the intellectual refinement and various good sports along with famous lectures by men of world outlook and congenial, brotherly spirit that spontaneously prevails among the student body in the Conference, were simply wonderful." Kwang Sup Yum of Korea.

"Every college man who has not caught the vision of his future career should attend one of these conferences, as all of the great problems that face the rising generation are plainly pictured by men of experience, and for men who have already chosen their life work the problems of their profession are discussed more in detail."

"I have not spent any more pleasant and profitable ten consecutive days in this country than the ten days I spent at Blue Ridge. The whole trip was a revelation to me, nature, men and God are wonderful at Blue Ridge," Pablo Velasco of Mexico.

"A trip to Blue Ridge is a thing of beauty and a joy forever." I am confident that no student can ever spend a bigger or a more remunerative ten days than Blue Ridge offers." W. R. Hutcherson

.. Letters From Prominent Men ..

President McVey of the University of Kentucky: "The University will surely be represented at Blue Ridge by a member of our faculty again this year."

President Martin of Davidson College: "We hope very much that we can have a representative of our faculty present at your Conference this year."

President Riddick of N. C. State College: "We shall surely have a representative at Blue Ridge this year. I hope that Mrs. Riddick and myself may be able to come. We enjoy the Conference a year ago so very much."

Prof. Burruss of V. P. I.: "We shall hope to have at least three members of our faculty present this year and I am planning to come myself unless something unforeseen prevents it."

The residence is very spacious and will make a desirable fraternity house. The purchase of this property makes the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity the second on the campus to own its house, the Sigma Nu's having built a handsome residence on Winslow street last year.

Another unusual and interesting event was the sham battle waged by an advancing platoon and the machine gun firing conducted by Captain Bethurum.

A large crowd witnessed the service which closed late in the afternoon with a final passing in review of the band and the three companies.

 EXPECTED IN TRACK
 MEET ON STOLL FIELD

Four Kentucky Colleges to Compete for Honors at 2 p. m. Saturday

TEAMS READY TO GO

Berea, Centre, Georgetown and U. of K. to Contest

The twelfth annual Kentucky inter-collegiate track meet will be held on Stoll Field next Saturday afternoon with four colleges competing. The meet will start promptly at 2:00 o'clock. Berea, Centre, Georgetown and the University of Kentucky will have teams competing for honors in the meet.

A large bronze shield donated by the Athletic Council will go to the winning team. The highest individual point winner will receive a silver loving cup. Gold, silver and bronze medals will go to the men who are first, second and third respectively in the different events.

On paper the Wildcats have the edge on both the Colonels and the Tigers. On April 18 Centre defeated the University of Tennessee 59 to 50. On April 29 Kentucky defeated Tennessee by a 80 to 51 score. Kentucky defeated the University of Cincinnati 68½ to 48½. Georgetown on the other hand came out on the little end of a 72 to 45 score in a dual meet with Cincinnati. Little is known of the Berea college team, but Berea has always turned out a strong team in the past and may be depended upon to put up some keen competition in the coming meet.

Winning on paper and the track is different, however, and Coach Buchheit is determined that if hand work has anything to do with it the Wildcats will have a mighty good chance. Coach Buchheit has been putting the men through a brisk practice all this week preparation for Saturday's meet. Captain Clare, the ace of the Blue and White cinder stars, will be entered in the sprints and in the hurdles and possibly the broad jump. In the recent dual meet between Kentucky and Cincinnati, Clare won four firsts and one second out of five events entered and may be counted on to run up several points in the coming meet. Porter the mainstay of the Wildcats' distance men is hard at work and may be depended upon to do his usual brilliant work in the distance runs. Wilhelm will probably be entered in the 440 yard run, the relay, and high jump. In the recent meet with Cincinnati "Jimmy" won the high jump placed in the 440 yard run and ran on the relay team which defeated the Bearcats. In the weights Kentucky will have Davidson and Hollowell to help run up scores. All the men are working hard and are fast whipping into shape for the coming meet.

The Centre track team headed by Captain Kimbel will be strong contenders for first place in the meet and can be depended upon to offer some brilliant competition. Berryman, Murphy, Robertson and Stevenson will represent the Colonels in the dashes. In the middle distances Centre will enter Kimbel, Robertson, Hudgins and Murphy. Kimbel will also enter in the long distance runs and the relay. He is an excellent distance man and can be counted upon to keep things interesting. The relay team composed of Kimbel, Berryman, Robertson and Montjoy won the relay race at the recent Drake Meet this year and will undoubtedly, make a brilliant showing in Saturday's meet. The true test of their ability however will come when they compete against the relay team of the Blue and White. Kentucky won the relay race at the indoor meet held at Louisville this year under the auspices of the Louisville Athletic Federation and is unusually strong in this line. In the jumps Centre will be represented by Montjoy, Berryman and Keller, while "Red" Roberts, Brunback, and Green will represent the Colonels in the weights.

Lead by Captain Head the Georgetown Tigers will make a mighty effort to carry away the honors, and the least that may be said is that they will keep everybody on their toes. Head is the high point man of the Tiger aggregation taking 18 points in the recent dual meet with Cincinnati. He is entered in the sprints, the quarter mile, and the high jump. Slead and W. Moore will also try to run up points for Georgetown. In the state meet of last year Slead was second in the discus throw, while Moore broke the state record in the javelin throw of the same meet. Pelfree, Cobb, Cooper and E. Moore are entered in the distance runs. These are all cross country men of last year and may be depended upon to put up a keen struggle.

Which will next year's captain wear?

IT DOESN'T need much wisdom to predict that next year's nine will be captained by a '28 man or maybe a '24 man.

This is no affront to underclassmen. Years of steady plugging must go before you can handle the man-sized responsibility of running a team.

That this is just, seniors will be the first to assert. They have seen how well it works for team and college. Then let the seniors keep this point of view, for soon they will find how closely the principle applies to themselves in the business world.

Captains of industry are not made overnight. Don't expect to step into a managership right away. Before you can lead, you've got to serve in the ranks awhile.

This is best for your organization and best for you. The time and energy you put in working up from the bottom, taking the bitter with the sweet, getting the upperhand over your job, will stand you in good stead when you have won through to executive position.

When you have learned how to handle detail work, you can begin intelligently to direct other men to do it, and thus free yourself for creative planning.

You who intend to be captains, have patience. Your year will come and so will your chance.

SCOTTI OPERA CO AT AUDITORIUM MAY 19

The Scotti Grand Opera Company at Woodland Auditorium Friday, May 19, will present "La Boheme" for the matinee and for the night the two operas "Pagliacci" and "L'Oracolo." Antonia as Chim Fang in "L'Oracolo," a one act opera by Franco Leoni, the scene of which is laid in San Francisco's Chinese quarters before the fire. Chim Fang pretends to love Hua Que, nurse to little Hoo Chee, son of a rich merchant Hoo Tain. The son of Win Shee, a learned doctor and reader of the future, loves Ah Yoe, niece of the merchant—they meet and declare their mutual affection. Win Shee divines that there is a tragedy connected with the boy who is stolen by Chim Fang because he has been thwarted by the child's father. Chim Fang hides the child and woos Hua Que, making the child's return a condition of his successful wooing. The merchant agrees but Sab Lay offers to find the child for a reward and he finds the child but Chim Fang follows and kills him with a hatchet,—then pushes little Hoo Chee thru a trap door. Ah Yoe is maddened by grief and Win Shee swears vengeance. A cry from the boy reveals his hiding place and he is restored to his father. Win Shee invites Chim Fang to set with him on a bench for a quiet talk and strangles him with his own pigtail. A policeman approaches and Win Shee props up the body and talks to it until the officers disappear. Then Win Shee rises and the body rolls to the ground.

The role of Chim Fang was created by Scotti in London in 1905 and it affords him the fullest possible opportunity of demonstrating his power as an actor of remarkable subtlety and intensity. The action is swift and thrilling and the story terrible. It is vivid in reproducing the life of the Chinese quarters, the cries of the street vendors, the chattering and chaffing of the crowds, the love episodes of the two characters and the clash of passions. vivid in reproducing the life of the Louis D'Angelo, Hoo Tsin; Armand

Tokayan, Cin-Lay; Clara Burns, Hoo Chee; Francesca Peralta, Ay Yoe; and Henrietta Wakefield Hua Quee. Genaro Pai will conduct.
